

NBP Observes Men's Day with Leadership Dialogue and Well-Being Session at Head Office

Karachi, Pakistan – Dec 2 2025: National Bank of Pakistan marked Men's Day with an insightful and engaging program at the Head Office Auditorium, bringing together senior leadership and employees for an afternoon focused on acknowledgment, reflection, and professional well-being. The event opened with "Behind the Titles," a leadership conversation featuring Mr. Adnan Nasir, SEVP & Group Chief, Digital Banking Group; Mr. Ismail Yusuf, SEVP & Group Chief, Treasury & Capital Markets Group, Mr. Faisal Topra, SEVP, Retail Banking Group.

The discussion explored perspectives on leadership, expectations, and the lived experiences that shaped their professional journeys. This was followed by "The Happiness Advantage," a keynote session delivered by Adeel Azhar — a well-known FM Host. His talk emphasized mindset, balance, and emotional well-being.

The event emphasized that Men's Day represents an opportunity to acknowledge the contribution, presence, and professionalism of male colleagues across the institution, while reinforcing the importance of dialogue and holistic well-being.

The program concluded with employees engaging informally with the panelists and keynote speaker, reflecting on the themes discussed throughout the session.
