NBP SPONSORS ANNUAL PROGRAM OF MASS MARRIAGES

Karachi, February 14, 2018: Pakistan Hindu Council held their annual program of mass marriages recently in which 100 Hindu couples from urban and rural Sindh got married in a grand ceremony at YMCA Ground, Karachi.

The occasion was full of colourful programs and celebration for all those who attended. Every year, more than 100 couples wait all year along for this ceremonial occasion, which marks a milestone in their lives.

National Bank, a socially responsible institution, assisted Pakistan Hindu Council once again by taking part as a sponsor in this mass marriage. The function was attended by friends and relatives from both groom and bride side and they appreciated the role of NBP and the support provided on this occasion.

On this joyous occasion the President & CEO NBP, Mr. Saeed Ahmad, conveyed his best wishes to all the newly married couples and vowed the institutional support of NBP to all classes of society including those from minorities.

On behalf of National Bank of Pakistan, EVP/Divisional Head, CSR presented a cheque to the organizer (Dr. Ramesh Kumar, Patron in Chief Pakistan Hindu Council) as a gesture of support to create harmony, prosperity and equal opportunity amongst the deserving fellow citizens.
